CATECHETICAL CORNER - WORDS

Language matters! Words matter! Thankfully we no longer use words like ‘handicapped’ we say things like, ‘less able’ or ‘having additional needs’. These words evoke different responses within us, calling us to a greater love, respect and appreciation for all people. Similarly, saying ‘I am baptised’ rather than ‘I was baptised’, should also evoke a different response within us. What does it mean to me that I am baptised? Being Baptised makes me a Christian. ‘Christ’ means the anointed one. A Christian, a person following ‘the Christ’ – the anointed one, is also an anointed one, that is what it means to be a Christian, to be an anointed one. If you are baptised, you are an “anointed one”. If you are confirmed you are anointed. You are special. You are royal and you are priestly. “It is called...anointing for it is priestly and royal as are those who are anointed...” (CCC #1216) “...you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s special possession [own people], that you may declare the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His wonderful light.” (1 Pet. 2:9) Take a moment and let that sink in.

You have been given a job, a ministry, to do. As St John Henry Newman said: “God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission...” The Church needs us all. It needs our particular gifts, talents and abilities. Just as the body needs the hand, the foot, the eye. While it can function without them, it is never the same, never as good, it is incomplete, it is lacking, so too the Church. (see 1 Cor. 12:12-31). Without each individual member fulfilling their unique role, the Church is incomplete, it is lacking and just not as good as it could be “Through Baptism we are...incorporated into the Church...” (CCC #1213) By incorporation into the Church we are given access to eternal life, but that is not the only reason for the Church. “The Church was founded to spread the kingdom of Christ...for the glory of God the Father.” (Document of the Second Vatican Council). According to the same document of the Second Vatican Council, we are assigned this work, this mission, not by the priest at our baptism, not by the parish priest who might need help, not even by a bishop or the Pope, but rather by the LORD Himself: “they [the lay faithful] are assigned to the apostolate [the mission of the Church] by the Lord Himself.” Viewing Baptism in this way is challenging. It calls us out ourselves. It calls us to be actively part of the mission. It calls us into ministry/service of our sisters and brothers. Baptism, viewed in this way, is dynamic and active rather than an historical event that has no bearing on my life now. Be careful how you use words, words change thoughts, thoughts change actions and actions change behaviour. Language matters. Words matter.

Guardian Angels - 2nd October

Angel of God, my guardian dear, To whom God’s love, commits me here.

Ever this day be at my side, to light and guard to rule and Guide. Amen.
