How Does Jesus Treat Sinners?

In the Old Testament, God gave His people rules that said they should punish the people who sinned. That's why in today's Gospel the Pharisees and scribes brought a sinful woman to Jesus to see what He had to say about the law.

Instead of telling them that they should punish her according to the law, Jesus told them that they should only punish her if they themselves had never sinned.

Sometimes we hear about a sin that someone else did. God does not want us to be mean to that person because of what they did. Does that mean that they didn't do a sin? No. Jesus told the woman to go and not sin again. That means that she did sin, but He was giving her another chance. We should try to be merciful like Jesus, and we should be kind to sinners because we are sinners too.

Answers: front: "Let him who is without sin cast the first stone."

Jesus wants to be our friend. He wants us to be good. And even when we make mistakes HE still loves us and wants us to try to be better. Can you colour in the picture of Jesus and the woman who made bad choices?
